

SAKTHI FOUNDATION - Uni5 CAC
Uni5 RAMAYANAM - 6.What can scriptures can do for you?

As we saw in the previous chapter's last passage we learn about our-self through others. People all over the world do the same. Let us listen to Valmeki what can a good literary scripture can do for you?

- * Scriptures will transform our mind by making us to think about our own problems.
- * Scriptures make us to transform our ignorance which is main cause for all sins.
- * They show us various sample studies from various people's life about the issues which we face today.
- * They indirectly make our self to take a decision for our own problems [self-counseling]
- * The great scriptures rendered by great men [poets, saints] with true awareness. Their words are very energetic and they increase the mind power and SAL Energy.
- * Scriptures can show you how to overcome problems in all 3 levels [body-mind-intelligence]. Same time they also assists us in improving the quality of the 3 levels of life.
- * They make our mind to relax, settle and make our time useful.
- * Our time and energy will be directed to good reading, understanding, sharing, writing and analyzing. By this mind is free from many causes of problems.
- * Scriptures helps a man who has lost faith in living because of his sins to regain his positive energy.
- * By listening the discourses mind is much involved in analytical thinking and tamed from wandering with unwanted thoughts.
- * They help us to understand the meaning for living and make us to perform good deeds in personal and public life.
- * They remove our previous birth's sins by making us to be aware about cause for sins and self-correction.
- * They improve our information knowledge, general knowledge about various disciplines, language and culture.
- * They enrich our good communication skills with good energetic wordings.
- * They can clarify much confusion about death. They assist us to start thinking about freedom [salvation].
- * Like imitating a hero we need to follow [not imitate] the characters of great literatures with good aspects. They stand us role models for both positive and negative phase of life.
- * We can realize the truth within the self and connect with the universal pattern.
- * The concept of "God" will be cleared.Sri Rama Jeyam!