Uni5 RAMAYANAM - 10. Who is an ideal man in this society?

Abstract from Sudha Maharishi's advice.

- * He must be aware about his own actions, truth, good and bad, right actions for others, gratitude for others, keeping up the promise and loving all beings on Earth.
- * He must have a versatile knowledge with practical orientation.
- * He must be clear about his thoughts, speech and actions.
- * He must have acceptable behavior and good looking in nature.
- * He must be able to perform the actions which he has planned with awareness and perfection.
- * He must be able to tame his mind and be its master.
- * He must be skilled in taming his anger.
- * He never hates others. But condemns their unacceptable actions.
- * He must be bold enough to express his mission, thoughts and actions.
- * He must be dare enough to face the evils of society.
- * He must be aware about the feelings of his associates and able to consider their needs and fulfill them.
- * He must be clear about the laws of universe and implement them in his life. He is good in his memory and recollection.
- * He is lovable and respected by his people.
- * He is selfless in his actions.
- * He is the abode of compassion and kindness for the suffering beings.
- * He listens to great wise men with experience.
- * His friends circle is good.
- * He is unbiased in nature to all.
- * He respects others feelings and also recognize others actions.
- * He is very polite and tolerance in nature like mother Earth.
- * He gives priority to others feelings and happiness.
- * Sathya - truth is the braveness of a man.

* He is dedicated to the self-called "God".
