Thiru param kundram Subramanya Swamy temple - hand notice

One of the ancient most temples of the nation located west to Madurai city.

The temple is a Paandiya rock cut den temple.

The temple is being worshipped with all the 5 great gods of Hindu religion. [Shiva, Vishnu, Durga, Ganesa and Karthikeya]

But the temple is being much celebrated much for its Subramanya. This is the very first abode of Subramanya - Karthik - Muruga [most auspicious God of Tamil people]

The temple is being celebrated by many ancient literatures since 2. A.D

The lord is in seated posture. He is being married to Devasena - Vishnu's daughter after killing 3 demons. [Says Skandha puranam]

This is the temple for wedding life.

The rock cut dens were the abodes for Jain monks in 4 B.C. There are many inscriptions of Jains in the hillock.

This temple is the first abode of Lord Surbramanya.
