

July, 2014

Development of spoken skills and social skills can be seen with natural good changes among the mixed age group.

Prayers are enriched with Thirukural.

Children are maintaining the cleanliness at home also.

Pulling the charriot on all Fridays with musical setup is being enjoyed by all children.

Ganga concept has reached well among parents through children.

One more child with special needs have been referred to our doctor and parents are being guided.

"my child frequently observed me wasting water at kitchen and said not to waste. She said that Ganga matha will stop giving water to home" - 3.5 year old child's mother.

"Mother Earth stores water under her. If you want you have to put pipes" - says 4 year old child to his father.

"Sun and moon gives us light at day and night. Like them we must give what we have to poor people" - 3.5 year old child to his mother.

Children are very particular in cleaning their hands and legs before and after using toilet.

Children are talking in crisp sentences in English also.

Children arrange the foot wears of others at home environment.

Children are brushing twice a day at home.

They are very particular in wishing in all 3 times.